“Of all the branches of men in the forces there is none which shows more devotion and faces grimmer perils than the submariners.”

- Winston Churchill -

My apologies for yesterday's mistake in not successfully having attached the "heads up" newsletter about two days of radio interviews with Simon Conway and USS Iowa crew members in Connecticut.

Here is a link to yesterday's interview with Simon Conway and CDR Quintin James on his afternoon radio show on WHO (1040 Des Moines) and WMT and WOC from the USS Nautilus submarine museum in Groton, CT. He'll be airing again today from 4-6 PM. He'll be featuring interviews with crew members and local personalities. If you get a chance, take a listen!!

And next week during RAGBRAI, keep an eye out for a contingent from the Iowa submarine that is riding with Team Navy which is headed up by Commodore Rudy Laco. Their RAGBRAI jerseys feature a submarine and they will be making a lot of public appearances during the week's ride.

Keep your eye on the lookout for them!!

Congratulations to the Iowa Commanding Officer CDR Quintin James. He has been selected for promotion to the rank of Navy Captain and will soon be putting that on. That's a sure sign that the road to success leads through IOWA!
